Please note that the scholarship is restricted according to IRS publication 970 as follows:

- You are a candidate for a degree at an eligible educational institution, and
- You use the scholarship to pay qualified education expenses.

Candidate for a degree. You are a candidate for a degree if you:

- Attend an accredited educational institution that is authorized to provide:
 - a. A program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's or higher degree, or
 - b. A program of training to prepare students for gainful employment in a recognized occupation.

Eligible educational institution. An eligible educational institution is one that maintains a regular faculty and curriculum and normally has a regularly enrolled body of students in attendance at the place where it carries on its educational activities.

Qualified education expenses. For purposes of tax-free scholarships, these are expenses for:

- Tuition and fees required to enroll at or attend an eligible educational institution, and
- Course-related expenses, such as fees, books, supplies, and equipment that are required for the courses at the eligible educational institution. These items must be required of all students in your course of instruction.

Expenses that do not qualify:

- Room and board
- Travel
- Research
- Clerical help, or
- Equipment and other expenses that is not required for enrollment in or attendance at an eligible educational institution.
