Please note that the scholarship is restricted according to IRS publication 970 as follows:

- You are a candidate for a degree at an eligible educational institution, and
- You use the scholarship to pay qualified education expenses.

Candidate for a degree. You are a candidate for a degree if you:

- Attend an accredited educational institution that is authorized to provide:
  - a. A program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's or higher degree, or
  - b. A program of training to prepare students for gainful employment in a recognized occupation.

Eligible educational institution. An eligible educational institution is one that maintains a regular faculty and curriculum and normally has a regularly enrolled body of students in attendance at the place where it carries on its educational activities.

Qualified education expenses. For purposes of tax-free scholarships, these are expenses for:

- Tuition and fees required to enroll at or attend an eligible educational institution, and
- Course-related expenses, such as fees, books, supplies, and equipment that are required for the courses at the eligible educational institution. These items must be required of all students in your course of instruction.

Expenses that do not qualify:

- Room and board
- Travel
- Research
- Clerical help, or
- Equipment and other expenses that is not required for enrollment in or attendance at an eligible educational institution.

For the 2024-2025 school year, I am also applying for other VASA scholarships: None District Grand Lodge

1. The Golden Valley Lodge No. 616 shall appoint a scholarship chairperson at its January business meeting. The elected chairperson shall create a committee (of at least three members) known as the “Scholarship Committee” to receive applications and to select scholarship recipient(s). No member of the committee is to be related to any applicant.
2. Golden Valley Lodge No. 616 will allocate $30,000 this year for scholarships.
3. Three categories of scholarships may be awarded by the committee each year:
  - $4,000 maximum to a full-time undergraduate student enrolled in a four-year university
  - $3,000 maximum to a full-time junior college student, vocational student, or graduate student
  - $1,000 maximum to a part-time student, regardless of categoryFull-time is defined as a minimum of 12 credit hours, and part-time is defined as a minimum of 6 credit hours.
4. Subject to limitations, student recipients may apply for scholarships in subsequent years. The accumulated amount granted since the awards' inception in 2002 is restricted to $18,000 per person, irrespective of category or scholarship criteria in effect at the time of award. If this year's total allocation exceeds $30,000, applicants with a lifetime accumulated amount of $15,000 or less will receive priority.
5. Student applicants must have been members of Golden Valley Lodge No. 616 for at least twelve months before the award announcement. Recipients are not age-limited.
6. The applicant shall provide the most recent official transcript available. The Applicant shall provide a Letter of Acceptance from the chosen accredited educational institution or proof of enrollment for the 2024-2025 school year.
7. Each applicant is required to write an essay, at most 1000 words, to accompany the application. The committee will decide on the essay topic.
8. Applicant must provide one recommendation letter from a current GV Lodge board member.
